HOME SCHOOL

AGREEMENT

Governors and staff at Rudston understand that to achieve the very best for all the children in school we need to work together. Staff and children supported by their parents and carers can achieve more together than by working alone.

"We fail our children miserably if we assume that school can do everything."

[John Abbott – President of C21st Learning Initiative]

we all like to be included

OUR SCHOOL COMMUNITY – learning and working together for the good of all our children

THE SCHOOL

On behalf of all staff I will support children in achieving their best and enjoying school by:

- ◆ Setting and expecting high standards of learning and behaviour;
- ◆ Working to achieve the aims and vision for the school;
- ◆ Following the Code of Conduct;
- ◆ Treating all children fairly;
- ◆ Planning a broad, balanced and enriched curriculum that develops the talents and aspirations of the whole child and of all children;
- ◆ Planning enjoyable and interesting lessons which enable all to succeed;
- ◆ Listening to the views of children, parents, carers and the wider community;
- ◆ Working with Governors and Staff to maintain high standards and a philosophy of continuous improvement
- ◆ Monitoring our performance
