

How have the toys in Santa's workshop changed overtime?

I am a historian because:

- I understand things have changed and will continue to change overtime.
- I can use words and phrases like: 'old', 'new'.
- I can place up to 5 objects in chronological order.
- I can recognise that some objects belong to the past.
- I can ask and answer questions about old and new objects or photos.
- I can compare old and new toys, identifying what is the same and what is different about them.

Vocabulary:

timeline

past present

old new yesterday

today

chronological same different

Toys from the past

Toys from the present

Interesting Facts:

- The earliest toys were dolls.
- The yo-yo is believed to be the world's second oldest toy after dolls.
- Toys can be made from lots of different materials including plastic and wood.
- Christmas is festival celebrating the birth of Jesus.
- Santa has many different names around the world including, St Nicholas, Kris kingle and Father Christmas.

